

Aaron Lucoff

Aaron Lucoff is the criminal chief for the U.S. Attorney's Office, District of Idaho. He has held that position since August 2010. Before becoming criminal chief, Lucoff was a line AUSA in the District of Idaho handling firearms and drug cases. He joined the U.S. Attorney's Office in August 2002. Before becoming an AUSA, Lucoff was a Canyon County deputy prosecutor for a little over five years handling mostly violent crime cases. He attend the University of Idaho law school, graduating in May 1997.